

HUTTON ALL SAINTS' C. OF E. PRIMARY SCHOOL
ABSENCE REQUEST FORM

Leave of absence may only be granted by a person authorised in that behalf by the proprietor of the school. As from 1st September 2013, the Education (Pupil Registration) (England) (Amendment) Regulations 2013 amended Regulation 7 to prohibit the proprietor of a maintained school from granting leave of absence to a pupil, except where an advance application has been made by the parent with whom the pupil normally resides, and the proprietor considers that there are exceptional circumstances relating to the application. HEADTEACHERS ARE NO LONGER ABLE TO AUTHORISE HOLIDAY DURING TERM TIME.

Taking your child out of school during term time could be detrimental to your child's educational progress. A pupil who takes 10 days absence will only attain 94.7% attendance which is considered to be poor. 10 days absence also means the pupil will miss 50 hours of education.

There is no entitlement to parents to take their child out of school during term time, however, you may apply to the school for leave of absence if you believe there are exceptional circumstances.

If the absence is not authorised and the holiday is taken, the case will be referred to the Education Welfare Service who may issue a Penalty Notice for £120 (or £60 if paid within 21 days) to each parent for each child taken out of school.

HOLIDAYS IN TERM-TIME

IMPORTANT: Please read carefully the information below. If the absence is not authorised and the holiday is taken, the case will be referred to the Education Welfare Service who may issue a Penalty Notice for £120 (or £60 if paid within 21 days) to each parent for each child taken out of school.

As a parent/carer, you can demonstrate your commitment to your child's education by, whenever possible, taking your holidays during school holidays.

THE FACTS

We recognise that it is often expensive to take a holiday during school breaks and that is why some parents may ask for term-time leave for their child. However, it is important that parents carefully consider the implications of taking their child out of school during term time. Research suggests that children who are taken out of school may never catch up on the course work they have missed.

Children who struggle with English or Mathematics may also find it even harder to cope when they return to school, while younger children may find it difficult to renew friendships with their classmates.

THE LAW

If the child is away from school for a total of four weeks or more, we may take the child off roll unless there is a good reason for the continued absence, such as illness. In these circumstances it is up to the parent to give the school medical proof as, once removed from roll, there is no guarantee that the child will gain a place at the school.

Other absence from school will be authorised if it is for the following reasons (this is by no means an exhaustive list):

- Genuine illness
- Unavoidable medical / dental appointments (but try to make these after school if at all possible)
- Days of religious observance
- Exceptional circumstances, such as bereavement
- Seeing a parent who is on leave from the armed forces
- External examinations
- When Traveller children go on the road with their parents
- In specific designated professions where it is understood that the parent has no choice on holiday dates.

Other absence from school will not be authorised (this is by no means an exhaustive list):

- For any type of shopping
- Looking after brothers, sisters or unwell parents
- Minding the house
- Birthdays
- Resting after a late night
- Relatives visiting or visiting relatives
- Parents/sibling medical appointments.

Please contact Miss Miller if you wish to discuss any possible absence.

We hope that when you have read the above you will consider that your child's education is too important to take holidays during term.
