Dear Parents/Carers and Pupils,

Thank you so much for sending us pictures of your activities at home. We are thoroughly enjoying seeing them and sharing them in our Newsletter with everyone. Keep them coming!

So far we have been open everyday during the Easter holidays, however, we do not have any key worker children attending Good Friday or Bank holiday Monday and therefore the school will be closed. It will be lovely for staff to have a break with their families; they have been working tirelessly over the past few weeks and I thank them for this. Therefore, if you have any non-urgent queries, please save them for Tuesday when we will be open again. If you have an urgent query or concern please email admin@huttonallsaints.essex.sch.uk, which is monitored daily.

Have you been watching Father Andy's weekly worship for us via his you tube channel? Thank you Father Andy! Check it out! <https://www.youtube.com/channel/UC-GvE3Jj3lgeb3j21AEXtfA> As this is a youtube channel, it will need to be supervised by an adult as other links can pop up.

Also, the Hutton Parish Facebook page not only has regular services for us all, but also news about the Pop up Bread Café-providing food for anyone in need. <https://www.facebook.com/huttonparish/>

Wishing you all a wonderful Easter. Mrs J. Manookian

Safety guidance for Parents. Please ensure internet safety is discussed each week as the children do more work online. Here are important websites to support you. Mrs Woolley has been teaching Todd how to make roast dinner. Doesn't it look delicious!

Here's a picture of Mrs Severn doing some cross stitch sewing. "I used to do it a lot when I was younger, but I just haven't had the time in recent years, so it's been great getting back into it again. The only problem I have is that every time I sit down to do it, one of my cats (I've got 3) comes to play with the threads!"

What have the staff been up to?

Mrs Willams has been busy crafting. Look at her lovely craft room!
